

What is Europe's most comprehensive energy storage archive?The report, now in its ninth edition, compiled by the European Association for Storage of Energy (EASE) and LCP Delta tracks over 3,000 energy storage projects from over 27 countries to claim the moniker of the most comprehensive archive of European storage. Is energy storage growing in Europe?The fleet of energy storage projects in Europe, including both pumped hydro and battery energy storage systems of all sizes, is expanding rapidly. This growth is set to continue at a strong pace through , fueled by technological advancements, supportive policies, and other key factors. Image: European Association for Storage of Energy How big is Europe's energy storage capacity?The European Market Monitor on Energy Storage reveals rapid expansion in energy storage capacity in Europe, reaching 89GW by the end of . Is Germany still leading Europe's residential storage sector in ?Germany continued to lead Europe's residential storage sector, adding over 510,000 new installations in , even after a 10% decline, the LCP Delta and EASE find. However, according to Germany's Federal Association of Energy Storage Systems (BVES), the drop in the residential storage segment was much more pronounced, reaching as high as 40%. What does reveal about energy storage in Europe?So what does it reveal? was a record year for new energy storage deployments in Europe, with 12GW/21.9GWh increases in the total capacity. These were comprised of 4.9GW/12.1GWh increases in front-of-the-meter capacity and 7.1GW/9.8GWh increases in behind-the-meter capacity. Which countries are leading the battery storage market in Europe?For commercial and industrial (C& I) electrochemical storage, Germany led deployment, while other European markets also saw growth. The C& I battery storage market expanded by approximately 28%, despite challenges in the solar PV sector--particularly in Spain, France, and Italy--that affected battery sales for PV optimization, the report finds.
